NEW YORK,.....October 10,.....1890.

My dear Mr. George,

Herewith I enclose a list of speakers so far decided upon. It needs only yours to complete the list. A long speech is not desired as the list of speakers will be long and short speeches the order. It will mark an epoch and your absence will be noticed.

Yours truly,
